Resolution.—There was a free discussion of this subject. The opinion of the Taluk Boards were considered. Only the Taluk Board of Tarikere is agreeable to the Revenue Commissioner's proposals of the members of the Board present only 4 are in favour of the proposals and support the opinion of the Tarikere Taluk Board. The majority consider that the time is not ripe for a revision of the mohatarfa on the lines suggested. The effect of the revision will undoubtedly be to the prejudice of the agriculturists, and it is undesirable to increase their burden at the present moment. A reply to Government may be sent as above.
